Brady Vancura named new Assistant Principal at Scotus Central Catholic

(Columbus, Neb.) Scotus Central Catholic is pleased to announce that Brady Vancura (2011 Scotus graduate) will be the new assistant principal starting this fall. Vancura will replace Angie Rusher who is moving back into the classroom full time at Scotus. It is apparent Brady has a passion for Scotus Central Catholic, and we are excited to have Brady in our school system.

Vancura has six years of teaching experience at Beatrice Middle School and at Columbus High School. He has a master's degree in curriculum and instruction from Peru State College along with a master's degree in school administration from Chadron State College.
